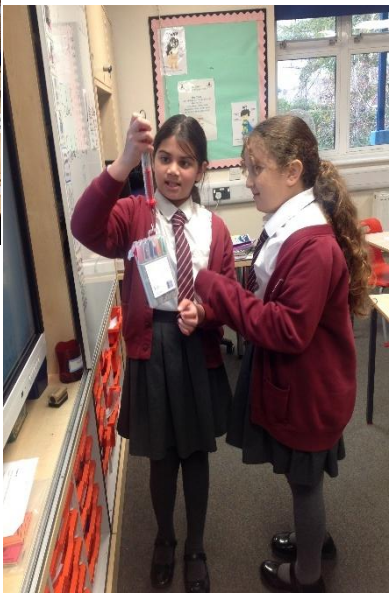
'Be the family you want'

Dear Parents and Care givers,

As usual our children stood proud and showed respect during our Remembrance service, thank you to the grown-ups who joined us. Our Deputy Head pupils read the 'Flanders Field' poem, with the Head pupils laying the school wreath.
Thank you to Olivia, who painted a lovely poppy picture for Remembrance.
Times like these make me even prouder to be the Head of Larchfield. 😊

Year 1 and 2 sharing their story writing, how great is that? 😊

Year 5 Scientists studying forces.

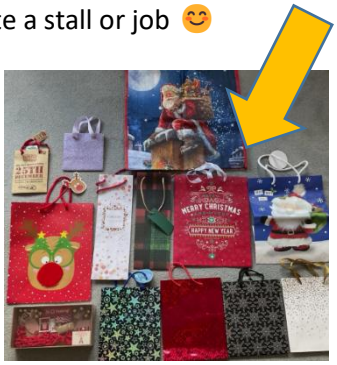


Thank you for attending Parents' Evening this week, and also to our dedicated teachers staying until 7.30pm on Thursday to give feedback. I know I ask every time, but please, if you book an appointment and can't make it or make 2 by mistake please let the office know asap.

By not communicating it often means that other parents are unable to get appointments or the teacher wastes valuable personal time waiting. We had one teacher waiting until the very end for 2 parent appointments who didn't show.

We have had some fantastic donations in for the Christmas Fair, we had a fab team sorting, ticketing and organising. Thank you to them for helping today. Organising a school fair takes teamwork and it's great to see people wanting to be on board.

Remember if you think you can help out on the day, please let myself, the school office or Ms Allen know and we'll allocate a stall or job 😊



Do you have any gift bags hanging around in the cupboard or loft? We are looking to be resourceful and save landfill by using Christmas gift bags for wrapping the presents bought by the children in the morning of the fair. If you have any, please send them in with your child or hand them to me on the gate or Mrs Sharma on the Reception gate.

Please also have another check through those cupboards and lofts over the weekend, as we still need more for the gifting stall. Obviously we are helping you to declutter and start the new year with space! 😊

Thank you to Daria's family who have donated a new Seiko clock worth around £300 for the raffle!
