

View of our Artists Over Time

Traditional? Art that is part of a culture of a certain group of people, with skills and knowledge passed down through generations from masters to apprentices	Palaeolithic Art Prehistory	Cave art, engravings and carvings from across the world dating from 50,000 BCE to around 10,000 BCE	Cave art
	Ancient Art	8,000 BCE to 5 th Century AD Ancient civilisations	Ancient Egyptians Ancient Greeks Romans Vikings Anglo Saxons
	Medieval Gothic	6 th Century AD to 15 th Century
	Renaissance	15 th Century AD to 17 th Century	Katsushika Housai Paolo Uccello
	Realism	17 th Century to 19 th Century	Lieve Verschuier Johannes Vermeer
Modern: in modern art, the idea is to abandon the tradition and try new ways of seeing, as well as new ideas about the materials and use of art.	Impressionism	19 th Century	Van Gogh Monet
	Expressionism		Pablo Picasso Emile Nolde
	Abstract		Kandinsky Matisse Klee Mondrian Pollock
	Surrealism		Henri Rousseau Escher
	Pop Art, Illustration	20 th Century	David Hockney Ken Done Charles Schridde Arthur Radebaugh Henry Moore
Contemporary: Focuses on recent or present art, and often social issues.		20 th Century to 21 st Century	Frieda Kahlo Yinka Shonibare Bernadette Twomey Thandiwe Muriu John Miller Tom Camp Katharine Harvey Ifeoma Anyaeji Enxu Zhou