Chairs report

CK welcomed everyone to the meeting.
CK reported on activities last year-
Macmillan coffee morning
Halloween disco
Parent Xmas gift day
Spring disco
Mother day tea
Easter bonnet parade
Summer fete

Cash for clothes although this was disappointing as the price per kilo greatly reduced. The money raised (£225) was donated to the Ukrainian fun, as advertised to all the school community before the clothes collection,

Cake sales

Plant sales

Ice cream sales.

CK reported on Plans for next year-

All of the above except for cash for clothes. JK proposed a jumble sale instead to sell the clothes donated.

Treasurers report

SM reported balance September 2021 £6,100 and September 2022 £5,889 difference due to limited fund raising opportunities due to Covid.

SM reported that the PTFA was now a registered charity which helps with fundraising, she has managed to source charity grants totalling £2,750 which have helped towards the library refurbishment and the school trip.

SM reported some profits-

£1,525 Snow flake day/parents Xmas gift

£2,300 summer fete

£400 discos

£129 coin challenge.

JP and CK thanks SM for all her work on achieving charitable status.

New Ideas

The group discussed new ideas-

Jumble sale instead of cash for clothes

WhatsApp class group- SH to look into this.

Bingo with Babysitting.

Sponsored event, perhaps after Xmas.

Look at a big project.

Election of officers.

CK nominated and re-elected as chair

JP nominated and re-elected as vice chair

SM nominated and re-elected as treasurer.

A.O.B

JK gave thanks to the PTFA for their activities this year.

Meeting closed at 4.30pm
