Certificate winners this week

Well done to all our children who earned an achievement certificate this week in celebration assembly.

The children will have been told who their class team will be for next year, this morning. We look forward to seeing you on 17th (next Thursday 6.00 start) for the Meet the Teacher session. Please remember this is not a session for the children as they will have met their teacher earlier in the day.

Thinking of being organised for September, we have a lot of children not wearing the uniform shorts for PE at the moment. I completely understand that you don't want to get new ones at this stage, quite right too. But can I please remind you that they do need to be the black standard PE shorts and not cycling or shorts with logos. This was changed 2 years ago so that uniform was more affordable, please no burgandy shorts anymore.

It was a warm day at Windsor Castle this week for Reception, they had a tiring but great adventure seeing soldiers and the Queen Mary Doll's House. We have a few comments from the children: "I loved it when we found the dragons" "I liked the Changing of the Guard and they were singing the songs" "I liked the Dolls House".

Great fun in morning Nursery this week, lots of water and sand play and ok maybe a few water fights too! 😊

Don't forget, we have 1 more week for the guess the name of the teddy. 50p a guess and all monies going to Save the Children.

Have a lovely weekend.
