'Be the family you want'

Dear Parents and Carers,

Our theme for this week was 'Special Books'.

As you are aware our after school clubs are provided free for the children by staff with most clubs often fully booked. I would just like to remind you that should your child miss 2 sessions over the half term then on the 3rd absence the place will be allocated to the next person on the waiting list.

Talking of clubs, our sewing have created beautiful book marks over the term. I believe their next challenge will be button pictures. Well done Sewing Club, lots of patience needed but all worth it as you can all now sew button on clothes too! 😊

Tin Can Club are working hard to create Bug Hotels for the Learning Garden from recycled materials. Great to see the progression of their hammering skills 😊

It was great to have Altwood Cof E Secondary School imusicians in this week, performing to the whole school.

We are really looking forward to seeing the creative efforts for our Book dress-up day next Friday.

Remember only costumes linked to the books they have been studying so far since September. We feel this makes reading more meaningful and gives the children a good understanding of what they are reading, which can influence what they are writing. Thank you for your support with this. Here we have super efforts from last year, to help with ideas!

Best wishes to all those recognising Ramadan from today and for the following month. Please remember if your child is in Year 6 and you would like them to take part in fasting, then we must have the signed letter given out at the beginning of this week.

Have a great weekend

Mrs Kearney
Headteacher
